

Change the face of education. Lead the way.

THE ONLINE MASTER'S IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION.

The online Master of Science in Education \(M.S.E.\) in educational administration from the KU School of Education and Human Sciences builds effective educational leaders through a grounding in policy development and the political, economic and social forces that influence administrative decisions across the field of education. With two distinct tracks—a building leadership track and a non-licensure track—this program takes a top-down approach that encourages you to look at broader issues beyond the scope of a single classroom, at both the school and district level.

Program Benefits

- Learn from renowned faculty with extensively published research and diverse real-world experience
- Experience the challenges of over 30 diverse schools and their case-study-based curricula in the innovative simulated community of Jayhawkville
- Complete your coursework anytime, anywhere, through our innovative online format
- No GRE required for admission
- Accredited under NCATE standards through CAEP

Program Structure

- 12 courses
- 36 credit hours
- 8 weeks per course
- Complete in as few as 2 years

What You'll Learn

In the online master's in educational administration, you will explore various administrative roles; learn about education law; examine the national context for education in the U.S.; and focus on how to develop, support and manage staff members—a broad overview of everything you'll need to successfully lead a school or district. Your studies will culminate with either a building leadership internship experience or an elective course designed to deepen your knowledge of one or more elements of the facility experience that most interest you.
