

Help English language learners cross barriers.

The online graduate certificate in TESOL.

The online graduate certificate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages \(TESOL\) from the KU School of Education and Human Sciences is designed for those with prior teaching experience who are seeking an opportunity to build on and expand their prior knowledge about teaching English language learners. It invites you to explore contemporary standards and best practices for TESOL and provides tools and insights that you can immediately put into practice in your classroom or other educational role.

Program Benefits

- Learn from renowned faculty with extensively published research and diverse real-world experience
- Practical approaches grounded in pedagogical theory that can be applied directly to your own teaching
- Complete your coursework anytime, anywhere, through our innovative online format
- Create a working instructional portfolio that can be directly applied in your own classroom
- No GRE required for admission
- Accredited under NCATE standards through CAEP

Program Structure

- 5 courses
- 15 credit hours
- 8 weeks per course
- Complete in as few as 10 months

Admissions Requirements

- Completed online application form
- Professional resume or CV
- Completed bachelor's degree from accredited college or university
- Official transcripts from all colleges or universities attended
- Personal statement that indicates your specific interest in the program and how it relates to your career goals
- Application fee: $30
- Proof of English proficiency (for non-native English-speaking applicants)